Introduction

The National Society United States Daughters of 1812, founded in 1892, is a volunteer women's service organization dedicated to promoting patriotism, preserving history, and educating the public about the 1784-1815 time period.

During the Indiana Administration 2021-2024, one state object was to locate the 1812 soldiers buried in Indiana. Emphasis was placed on verifying burial locations, providing accurate service, and including any available veteran family information. While attempts have been made in the past by various individuals and/or organizations to provide names of 1812 soldiers buried in the various Indiana counties, the Indiana Daughters felt more comprehensive research was needed. The National Society does maintain a database (NBD) of patriot grave locations and markings, but it is believed that this new publication will provide more information to help the public in further genealogy endeavors.

About one-third of the Indiana counties are represented in this volume. As the project work continues, it is hoped that two additional volumes will be printed to include the remaining Indiana counties.

To be a member of USD 1812, eligibility requires a direct "ancestor who rendered civil, military or naval service to our country during the years of 1784 to 1815 inclusive." This publication includes those military veterans who served in the actual War of 1812, from the Battle of Tippecanoe through the year 1815. However, as eligibility for USD 1812 also includes members who ancestors rendered civil service, many of those men are also included in this listing. We recognize that both military service and civil service aided to the success of the United States during the War of 1812.

Found in this volume are the following Indiana counties: Bartholomew, Brown, Clay, Daviess, Dearborn, Decatur, Dubois, Elkhart, Gibson, Hamilton, Jackson, Jennings, Knox, Lagrange, Martin, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Noble, Ohio, Owen, Parke, Perry, Pike, Posey, Scott, Spencer, Steuben, Sullivan, Vanderburgh, Vigo and Warrick.

Appreciation is expressed to all the Indiana 1812 Daughters who worked on making this first volume a success. Special thanks goes to project co-chairs Sharla Thompson, member of the Olde Vistula Road Chapter, and Rebecca Speaker, member of the Phillip Schoff Chapter.

SPECIAL NOTE: Effort has been made to list verified proof of service and burial location for each veteran. It is recognized that some sources are more reliable than others, but the given information is the best that could be found at the present time. Mistakes may have been made, but if so, they were unintentional. Accuracy has been a primary concern, but unfortunately errors can occur. If errors are found, please contact the Indiana State Society, United States Daughters of 1812 with proof of corrections.
